

Louise Milone

Department of History
University of Georgia
Athens, GA 30602

228 Highland Park Drive
Athens, GA 30605
louise.milone@uga.edu

EDUCATION

Ph.D. History, University of Georgia, 2024 (expected)

Doctoral Candidate

Dissertation: A Miasma of Metals, Chemicals, Fire, and Smoke: Air Pollution, Devaluation, and Global Warming Through the Lens of a Southwest Pennsylvania Steel Town, 1900-2000

Committee: Cindy Hahamovitch (chair), Stephen Berry, Andrew Herod

M.A. Georgia State University, 2017

B.A. Georgia State University, 2014

GRANTS AND AWARDS

2020 ___ Warner-Fite Award for Outstanding History Student of the Year

2020 ___ History Department Travel Grant

2019 ___ Gregory Research Travel Grant

2018 ___ Gregory Research Travel Grant

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Whitworth Women's Facility, Volunteer Instructor

History Survey Course, Clemente Prison Teaching Project, Common Good Atlanta (2021) –
Invited back for fall 2022

University of Georgia, Teaching Assistant

U.S. History 1865 - Present (2020 & 2021)

U. History to 1865 – (2019, 2020, 2022)

International Rescue Committee, Volunteer Teaching Assistant

Adult Education, English as a Second Language and Civics (2016-2017, TEFL Certified)

CONFERENCE ACTIVITY – Papers

2016 “Mary Priniski, OP: Doing Justice by Being Present in the 1970s and 1980s South,”
Graduate Student History Conference, “The Power Struggle,” University of Alabama

2016 “The Great Speckled Bird: Connecting Local and Global,” a round table presentation, Graduate Student History Conference, Association of Historians at Georgia State University

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS

Organization of American Historians
American Society of Environmental Historians
The Labor and Working-Class History Association
The American Historical Association

OTHER PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

2010-2018: Consulting in fundraising and project management, most recent major project with Historic Rural Churches of Georgia (www.hrcga.org) assisting them in researching grant opportunities, writing grant applications and determining interpretation opportunities for two churches HRCGA wishes to restore and repurpose over the next year: Antioch Baptist Church, an African-American church founded in 1886 in Crawfordville, GA for a National Park Service grant; and Concord Primitive Baptist Church, founded in 1808 in Monticello, GA for private foundation funding

1976-2009: Prior experience includes working in the US Senate Subcommittees on the Constitution and Anti-Trust; as a lobbyist on health issues; in government, public, and community relations for hospital systems; and working in non-profit fundraising. Full experience list available upon request

